Unison Festival 2010 to be Hosted in Winnipeg by Rainbow Harmony Project, May 21-24, 2010

Winnipeg, MB, November 12, 2009 — GLBTT* choruses from across Canada gather every four years to share their music at what has come to be known as Unison Festival. Approximately 17 choirs and 450 singers will perform during 30 minute concert blocks on Saturday, May 22 and Sunday, May 23, 2010 in the historic Knox United Church located in the heart of Winnipeg. “This event has proven not only to be a musically moving festival but an affirming, educational and fun packed weekend.” says Vic Hooper, artistic director of the Rainbow Harmony Project.

The Opening Night Concert on May 21, 8 p.m. will feature the magic sounds of Rainbow Harmony Project. Also included will be a performance by a special GALA Choruses Choir composed of singers from throughout the USA. A tribute will be presented to Manitobans that have contributed nationally to the GLBT community.

The Closing Exercises on Monday, May 24, 11 a.m. will feature the Women’s, Men’s and Mixed Unison Festival Choruses conducted by Marg Stubington (Ottawa), Spencer Duncanson (Winnipeg) and Scott Leithead (Edmonton).
